Name of the text author / creator: .....

- A current curriculum vitae including a list of previous publications should be added to the registration form attached on a separate sheet.
- All forms of the book illustration can be submitted. In the interplay of image and text, the focus should be on pictures and the narrative possibilities should be explored innovatively. The illustrations should reveal their own artistic flair and individual handwriting.
- All submitted illustrations must be labeled on the back with the name of the participant as well as the title of the project.
- The participant confirms that s/he is the author of the illustrations and owns all the copyrights. In addition, s/he confirms that these are currently unpublished and that the underlying text is available to the publisher.
- The prize winner is guaranteed that the book will be published by Carlsen Verlag. For this purpose, an industry-standard copyright agreement with the Carlsen Verlag would be signed. The fee advance is € 5000,- and is in addition to the prize money, which is in the amount of € 12,000,-. The publisher agrees to work together with the winner on the editing of text and images, and the winner is prepared to carry out correction requests.
- The deadline for finished artwork for the entire book is April 01, 2028.
- Subsequent to the jury session or after the end of the exhibition, the unselected entries will be returned, if a fully addressed and sufficiently prepaid packet has been enclosed.
- The submitted works are not insured during the competition, exhibitions, and when being transported due to cost reasons.
- The submitted works remain the property of the copyright owner. By participating s/he agrees that parts of her/his work can be published free of charge in the context of press and public relations for the competition, including posting photos on the internet and other types of publicity methods used.
- With the submission of the competition entry, the participant agrees with the fee-free exhibition of the works until the end of 2028.
- If more than one person participates in the winning illustrations, the prize will be awarded to all those involved and the prize money divided equally amongst them.
- By submitting the work, the participant accepts the conditions of the competition.
- The judges' decision is final.
